

Dr. Saroj Srivastava, President IMS

Dr. Saroj Srivastava was invited by International Women's Conference to give presentation on Healthcare of menopausal women. She spoke on simple measure which can improve QOL. Along with physiotherapist Dr. Anuja Saxena a video presentation was displayed on correct walking, climbing, bending and on daily household activities and Meditation.

Dr. Saroj Srivastava was honored by Lions International at this occasion for her contribution to the cause of upliftment of Women, her social contribution and ethical practices.

Dr. Saroj Srivastava was honored by International Women's Conference and as a Chief guest was asked to address several para medical colleges and centres such as St.Mary's and Bora institute of paramedics.

She wrote an article in Hindi on International Women's Day in IMS publication Poise (International women's Day special).

