About Prayagraj

Prayagraj (also known as Allahabad) is a metropolis in the Indian state of Uttar Pradesh. It is the administrative head quarters of the Prayagraj district— the most populous district in the state. The city is the judicial capital of Uttar Pradesh with the Allahabad High Court being the highest judicial body in the state. As of 2011, Hindi is the most widely spoken language in the city.

Prayagraj lies close to Triveni Sangam, the "three-river confluence" of the Ganges, Yamuna and Sarasvati rivers. It plays a central role in Hindu scriptures. The city finds its earliest reference as one of the world's oldest known cities in Hindu mythological texts and has been venerated as the holy city of Prayaga in the ancient Vedas. In the early 17th century, Prayagraj was a provincial capital in the Mughal Empire under the reign of Jahangir.

In 1833, it became the seat of the Ceded and Conquered Provinces region before its capital was moved to Agra in 1835. Prayagraj (Allahabad) became the capital of the North-Western Provinces in 1858 and was the capital of India for a day.

Prayagraj is known as the City of Prime Ministers because seven out of 15 prime ministers of India since independence have connections to Prayagraj (Jawaharlal Nehru, Lal Bahadur Shastri, Indira Gandhi, Rajiv Gandhi, Gulzarilal Nanda, Vishwanath Pratap Singh and Chandra Shekhar).
